COCKTAILS

STOP HATIN' START TASTIN'

THE ONE WITH CANDY

Our recipe is made from a favourite peach candy! We've shaken up apricot, peach, strawberry, lime & a lovely vodka.

Easy to drink. So be careful!

Bonus info: A bit sweet - just like you

THE ONE WITH PASSIONFRUIT

Need we say more? Our twist has its roots from the famous Pornstar Martini with vodka, vanilla, lime & passionfruit. Yum!

Bonus info: Sweet & fresh - just like you

SOLERO, POR FAVOR!

You can come a long way with politeness. We've mixed vodka, passionfruit, vanilla & coconut milk to obtain this sweet and creamy cocktail. Be sweet!

Bonus info: Sweet & creamy - just like you

SUIT & TIE

Studies show that the more Gin & Tonics with cucumber you order, the higher the odds of you ending in a case of "me-too".

Anyhow, here's a Gin & Tonic twist with Skagerrak gin, vermouth, herbs, fresh cucumber & tonic.

Bonus info: Behave and respect each other

IF YUO CAN RAED TIHS, YUO NEED ANTOHER DRIKN

DARK N' BODIL

*Denmark had an absolutely crazy storm in 2013. What an event!
Anyway... here is our house Dark N' Stormy with a Kraken spiced rum, fresh lime & 3 cent ginger beer.
As fresh as a Prince of Bel-Air.*

ESPRESSO MARTINI

*If you do not know this cocktail, then simply order it.
Then you know it!
Stoli vodka, fresh espresso, Borghetti coffee liqueur & vanilla.*

DON'T KILL KENNY

*Our bartender, Kenny, has been working his magic behind the bar ever since we opened our doors for the very first time. What better way to honor him, than by putting his favourite cocktail on the menu?
Sailor gin, homemade tea-syrup, fresh lemon & vegan foamer.*

AL PACINO

The classic whiskey sour with a splash of some lovely Italian amaretto. If you haven't watched the movie 'The Godfather', please do so. Today would be great. Tomorrow is also acceptable.

DU ER SMUKKERE END ANDRE MENNESKER, SOM ER SMUKKE

RUM FORREST, RUM!

The legend says that Tom Hanks ran across the country in frustration of not having the recipe for our drink. To comfort him we revealed that it consists of 4 different types of rum, fresh lime, passionfruit & almond syrup.

And of course fire on top!

DINO-SOUR

History proves that the dinosaurs went extinct due to the T-Rex not giving the other dinosaurs time to enjoy Sailor Gin, homemade blueberry syrup, vanilla, lemon & foamer. So they all died, and the T-Rex had no more prey. Sad story...

So if you don't want humanity to become extinct, you know what to order.

PICK-UP LIMES

A very modern cocktail as it is hard to identify what it is. Is it sweet, sour, strong or a mix of everything?

You rarely create a tiki without picking up limes. Also, a good bartender need to master his pick-up lines, right?

House Zombie with 3 different types of rum, grenadine, cinnamon, pineapple, lime, bitters & an absinthe kiss.

PALOMA

1 tequila, 2 tequila, 3 tequila, floooooor!

A house favourite to enjoy during a busy shift. I am quite sure that our bartender Philip has never fulfilled a shift without a Paloma or five in his system.

*José Cuervo tequila, fresh lime, agave & 3 cent grapefruit soda.
Ariba!*

SIRI, PREPARE FOR MY HANGOVER

PAPER PLANE

"Can we pretend that air planes in the night sky, are like shooting stars?"

A classic whiskey-based cocktail with herbs, fresh lemon & a yummy blood orange aperitif. With this bad boy in your system, you will fly straight through security. Happy travels!

JOSÉ, EL POOLBOY

*We've got ourselves a new tequila! "José Cuervo Tradicional" is made solely by using the blue agave, making it a muy delicioso product.
Rumour has it that this tequila is the reason for many Mexicans running straight into the wall instead of climbing over it.*

Did we cross a line there? Get it?

If you're shaken up right now, it's okay, so is this drink.

We've shaken up the tequila with habanero chili, pineapple, lime & agave.

Real gentlemen drink pineapple juice. IYKYK

CHAI LOVE YOU

Our delicious chai cocktail is back! A creamy bastard with a whole lotta taste. This drink is one of our regulars' favorites with mouthwatering tastes like chai & amarula (better than Baileys).

Sweet & spiced! Give it a go. Or don't. It's okay.

DO - IT - YOURSELF

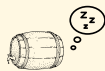

*Big news! We've looked forward to be trying this one out. Why?
Well, we are shaking hundreds of cocktails per night, so how do we rest our shoulders and have time for a little sip of our Paloma?*

The answer is.... YOU SHAKE IT!

That's right ma darling, we will mix together an Apple Martini with vodka, apple liqueur, vanilla & a cloudy apple juice.

ONLY IDIOTS DRINK THESE AND DRIVE. DON'T BE AN IDIOT

7 WEEKS LATER

Sssshhhh... please keep your voice down. The whiskey is sleeping! Our bartender, Aidan, has mixed whiskey, honey, orange & bitters in an oak barrel. He then sang a good night song with his angelic voice.

7 weeks later this amazing Old Fashioned woke up and is ready to be drunk.

HARAMBÉ

Harambé is back, baby! We've promised our regulars to bring it back, and here it is. Our house Piña Colade with a banana twist in loving memory of the late silverback gorilla, Harambé.

What a great monkey..

CASPER, THE FRIENDLY COCKTAIL

It is not just behind the bar that we can work our magic, but also in the bedroo... KITCHEN! In our kitchen we have filtered this cocktail (many times...) so you can enjoy this silky smooth & transparent whiskey sour twist with chestnut and cinnamon.

Your thoughts right now:

"You people are wild and you are more than welcome to come and be wild in my kitchen."

LONG STORY LONG

The Long Island Iced Tea was originally invented by mixing all the spirits you had with some lemon and sugar. You would then add a splash of Coca Cola to mimic the appearance of an Iced Tea, so the police wouldn't notice. Why? 'Cause it was goddamn illegal to consume alcohol during the prohibition period in the states from 1920 -1933. Our spirits in this strong mofo is Stoli vodka, Skagerrak gin, Diamond rum, José Cuervo tequila & Cointreau.

CHRISTMAS CAME EARLY, JUST LIKE MY EX

THE X-MAS GIFT

In this x-mas gift you should be able to identify tastes like chocolate, licorice, caramel & a marcipan from the amaretto. We've added a splash of fresh espresso & a saline solution to balance out the sweetness. Happy birthday, Jesus!

THE APPLE PIE COCKTAIL

Our guests have demanded it, and your wish is our command (rules apply). We've stretched the "Pure Apple Pie" shot with a cloudy apple juice, cinnamon & vanilla. This one is absolutely to pie for.

LAST X-MAS AGAVE YOU MY HEART

Not all x-mas elves are the salt of the earth. This drink is for the elf that can get wild. Snooze in the morning, wear shorts and a raincoat in the rain, because you know what? Who cares? This elf definitely doesn't. This elf does not wait for his shift to finish or his ex to call him back, wait what? anyway....

This fresh x-mas delight contains our snowingly fantastic 1800 Tequila Añejo, Carpano rosso, fresh lime, agave & a mandarin & bergamot soda from 3 cent.

GINGER CLAUSE

What do a free drink & a chimney have in common?

They're both "on the house". (insert applause)

But no no no, this drink sure isn't free! However it is goddamn delightful! We've created a ginger twist on a "Rum Swizzle" using ginger, orange, Falernum, fresh lime & soda.
